

Hon'ble, Minister for Milk and Dairy Development, Govt. of Tamil Nadu, Thiru.T. Mano Thangaraj with students of TANUVAS

with Industry Experts, explore partnerships, and learn about upcoming trends. The event not only provided networking opportunities but also sparking innovation within the dairy community. Tamil Nadu's Minister for Milk and Dairy Development, Thiru.T. Mano Thangaraj, appreciated the students' participation in technical events.

Insight into the Professional Terrain

The conference organized technical sessions that enriched our understanding of the food and dairy industries. The speakers covered topics such as cutting-edge processing methods and quality control procedures. Their expertise helped us navigate the ever-changing industry and increase our knowledge base. The conference was a lifetime experience for TANUVAS students, providing them with new opportunities for development and success in their positions and organizations. The hotel stay provided an opportunity to connect with college students from Kerala, Karnataka, Telangana, and Andhra Pradesh. The teamwork from various states led to successful volunteer work. Hyderabad, known as the "City of Pearls" due to its historical trading centres and rulers, was arranged by Chairman, Volunteering Committee, 50th DIC, to visit important places like Birla Mandir, Gol Conda Fort, and Charminar.

Conclusion

The dairy industry conference in Hyderabad's Hitech City was a success, fostering knowledge exchange, collaboration, and innovation within the sector. Speakers provided insightful presentations and industry leaders engaged in discussions. Attendees formed meaningful connections, and the diverse stalls showcased cutting-edge technologies driving dairy production, processing, and sustainability. The conference's impact extends beyond its duration, inspiring stakeholders to push the boundaries of excellence and drive positive change in the global dairy industry.

Acknowledgement

The organization expresses gratitude for the opportunity to attend the 50th DIC, where they had the privilege of speaking with prominent Indian dairy industry figures. They express their gratitude to the Er. Dayanand Peter Sir, and Er Faisal Sir for their continuous support. The team expresses gratitude to Dr. P. Geetha for her tireless efforts in securing volunteer involvement and her enthusiasm in guiding the conference. They acknowledge the challenges they faced, which provided valuable insights into maintaining composure, encouraging cooperation, and taking initiative. They are proud of their accomplishments and humbled by the praise they received, stating that the conference will serve as a beacon for future life. Dr. Satish Kulkarni, Chairman, IDA (SZ); and Shri C.P. Charles, Secretary General - 50th DIC & CEC Member - IDA; and Shri K.S.
